Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office action is responsive to communications filed 17 April 2006.
2. Per Applicants' request, amended claims 11, 12, 29 and 30 have been entered. Claims 11-14, 16-19, 21-23, 25-27, 29-32 and 34-37 are currently pending.
3. Claims 11-14, 16-19, 21-23, 25-27, 29-32 and 34-37 have been examined.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments, see page 7 of the remarks, filed 14 March 2006, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 11-14, 16-19, 21-23, 25-27, 29-32 and 34-37 under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent 6,052,526 to Chatt have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of newly found prior art.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claims 11-14, 16-19, 21-23, 25-27, 29-32 and 34-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent 5,913,063 to McGurrin et al. (hereinafter "McGurrin").

Art Unit: 2193

Regarding claim 11:

McGurrin teaches:

- making an independent copy of an entire tree of the class, (“object class FORM FRAME1 512 is ‘dragged’ and ‘dropped’ onto FORMS MODULE 510 which causes an object class FORM FRAME2 530 to be created as a subclass of FORM FRAME(1) 512...” in col. 9 lines 26-30)
- the class including an instance of a generic attribute class and an instance of a generic method class, the instance of the generic method class including an instance of a generic parameter class (“object class FORM FRAME2 530 automatically and instantly inherits all of the attributes of object class FORM FRAME1...” in col. 9 lines 32-35)
- storing the copy of the tree, and changing said first given name in order to assign a second name to the stored copy as claimed, the independent copy including a table specifying at least one parent of the independent copy and all ascendants of the independent copy, if any (“the object manager 404 generates and stores a new data structure for the new subclass. Dad is then generated to indicate the parent/child relationship between the two data structures” in col. 11 lines 3-6)
- wherein the steps are performed during a design stage prior to run-time (Note Figures 5A-5E and the corresponding sections of the disclosure. The above steps occur in a design module.)

substantially as claimed.

Regarding claim 12:

Art Unit: 2193

The rejection of claim 11 is incorporated, and further, McGurrin teaches a copy made through a serialization of the tree representing said class or said object as claimed (“The object manager...creates new data structures as new objects are created...the data structure...is stored in memory...” in col. 10 lines 57-62.)

Regarding claim 13:

The rejection of claim 11 is incorporated, and further, McGurrin teaches inheritance of the class as claimed (“inherits all of the attributes of object class...” in col. 9 lines 34-35)

Regarding claim 14:

The rejection of claim 11 is incorporated, and further, McGurrin teaches instantiation as claimed.

Note the rejection regarding claim 11.

Regarding claim 16:

The rejection of claim 11 is incorporated, and further, McGurrin teaches automatically generating the class by means of a tool having at least one dialog box as claimed. (Note Figures 5A-5E and the corresponding sections of the disclosure.)

Regarding claim 17:

The rejection of claim 16 is incorporated, and further, McGurrin teaches implementing the derivation by a computer designer, and using a command interface of a computer system as claimed (Note Figures 5A-5E and the corresponding sections of the disclosure.)

Art Unit: 2193

Regarding claim 18 and 19:

The rejection of claim 12 is incorporated, and further, note the rejection regarding claims 13 and 14, respectively.

Regarding claims 21-23:

The rejections of claims 12-14 are incorporated, respectively, and further, note the rejection regarding claim 16.

Regarding claims 25-27:

The rejections of claims 21-23 are incorporated, respectively, and further, note the rejection regarding claim 17.

Regarding claims 29-32 and 34-37:

Claims 29-32 and 34-37 do not further disclose or teach any new matter beyond that which is disclosed in claims 11-14, 16 and 17, and are therefore rejected for the reasons set forth in connection with claims 11-14, 16 and 17.
